INDIA AND SOUTH EAST ASIA

2006. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 275 The book traces India's links with countries of South East Asia, and examines why stability in that region is important for India. After an analysis of the modern concept of security, threats to each country of South East Asia and to the region are considered. The interest of foreign powers in the region and India's engagement, both bilaterally with individual countries and with the regional groupings, are covered in detail. A suggested comprehensive Action Plan has been included, which India can adopt for the period till 2035, to strengthen the 'Look East' Policy. About The Author:- Commissioned into 4 Gorkha Rifles, Lt Gen Y M Bammi, retired after putting in 37 years of service. He served in field areas in Jammu and Kashmir, Nagaland and Arunachal Pradesh.
