Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.As nurses, we always try to give 100 of our attention, care, and kindness to our patients. Sometimes, however, there are obstacles that interfere with us being able to do so. It could be an understaffed hospital, a problem with a coworker or a supervisor, a difficult patient, or even a domineering physician. This stupid nurse has encountered all of the above over her 36-year nursing career and has decided to share some of her experiences in her book I m Just a Stupid Nurse. Join me as I recount numerous stories from my time as a nurse that are at times heartwarming, hilarious, and inspirational. Born in a small town in Kentucky, the author, Lynn Jones, completed her BS in Nursing at Eastern Kentucky University, and attended graduate school at IUPUI in Indianapolis, IN. She has worked in Kentucky, Indiana, Saudi Arabia, and Florida. She has traveled the world and cultivated her skills as a nurse, collecting her most interesting stories along the way. Her stories are sure to open a world unexplored to many outside of the medical field and are sure to keep the audience in stitches. She currently resides in Las Vegas, NV with her loving husband.
