Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Documentary Material Relating to the History of Iowa, Vol. 2 By the act of Congress, approved on the 28th of June, 1834, all that part of the territory of the United States bounded on the east by the Mississippi river, on the south by the state of Missouri, and a line drawn due west from the north-west corner of said state to the Missouri river; on the south-west and west by the Missouri river and the White Earth river, falling into the same; and on the north, by the northern boundary of the United States, was, for the purpose of temporary government, attached to, and made a part of, the territory of Michigan. By virtue of this act all that part of the Louisiana purchase which, four years later, was erected into the Territory of Iowa, became a part of the Territory of Michigan, itself originally a part of the Territory of the Northwest. The political Union thereby effected led in the course of events to the extension of the Ordinance of 1787 and laws of the Territory of Michigan over the country west of the Mississippi.
