Joseph I. Lieberman, Chairman of the subcommittee, presiding. Present: Senators Lieberman and Cochran. Opening Statement Of Senator Lieberman Senator Lieberman. Good morning. The hearing will come to order. I want to think all of you for joining us this morning as this Subcommittee focuses its attention on the difficult question about how best to preserve and grant access to the working papers of retired or deceased Supreme Court Justices. The recent release of the papers of Justice Thurgood Marshall has brought into full public view a host of questions that has been left unattended for a number of years. I must say that I read with great fascination the series of articles in The Washington Post

Reviews

These kinds of publication is the greatest pdf available. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
