Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That the state is hereby divided into school districts, to be styled respectively city districts of the first class, city districts of the second class, village districts, special districts, and township districts. Sec. 2. Each city having a population of ten thousand or more by the census of 1870, including the territory attached to it for school purposes, and excluding any territory within its corporate limits detached for school purposes, is hereby constituted a school district to be styled a city district of the first class. Sec. 3. Each city of the second class, having a population of less than ten thousand inhabitants by the census of 1870, including the territory attached to it for school purposes, and excluding the territory within its corporate limits detached for school purposes, is hereby constituted a school district to be styled a city district of the second class. Sec. 4. Each incorporated village, including the territory attached to it for school purposes, and excluding the territory within its corporate limits detached for school purposes, is hereby constituted a school district to be styled a village district. Sec.5. Municipal corporations hereafter created or advanced to a higher grade, shall, from and after their creation and advancement, be school districts corresponding to their grade as above provided. Sec. 6. Any school district now existing, other than those mentioned in the second, third, fourth and seventh sections of this act,...
