Dem Graphics, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a story about a boy who became a man. Growing up on a farm in Illinois, then as a teenager he moved to small town USA. In spite of his objection to war, he was called for duty and he chose the Navy. Dale was about to embark on an experience of a lifetime. Dale was assigned to a magnificent aircraft carrier during the Vietnam War, from 1967 to 1970. His story begins pre-Navy, continues with his time in basic training, class A school, and on to the Navy man's adventures, concluding with life after honorable military discharge. Dale shares the history of the ship's name starting with her service in the Civil War, WWII, the Korean War, the Vietnamese War and to the final days of the proud mighty vessel of the American Naval fleet. Follow Dale on various maneuvers and liberty calls in Far East ports. He meets interesting influential and sometimes silly people throughout his journey. Find out how he rocks a 31,000-ton ship from side to side. The author shares amusing encounters. The first stop we made was at the Australian carrier HMAS Melbourne. A drunken American sailor started to go up the ladder. Everyone yelled, Hey buddy, you are getting off at the wrong ship. He turned around and yelled back, Hey mate, this is my bloody ship. Dale explores Nagasaki, (life after the bomb) Japanese lifestyle. We went to a mountain top where we could see the entire city from a higher vantage point. After seeing all of this he is convinced we should try to never use these weapons again. He denotes the 4A.M. disaster at sea....
